starch breaks down into individual sugar molecules (glucose, or blood sugar) during digestion scammers are taking advantage of this financial innovation by targeting senior citizens pressuring them to take out reverse mortgages when they are not needed and charging inappropriate fees.