it seems that inositol is converted by the body to two secondary neurotransmitter chemicals that enhance the action of serotonin in the brain.

Complete response letters typically mean the agency believes the drug is not ready for approval.

Another class of laxatives are the osmotic type which promotes water retention in the bowel.